VERY MOMENT MATTERS!

CHRISTMAS DONE IN STYLE! With a twinkly KS1 Nativity and an uplifting KS2 Christmas Concert, there was no better way to end the term. No tears, no stress and so much money raised to help us replenish our library shelves with new and exciting books! A definite winner for all involved and clearly for the audience too. Many thanks to our amazing FOPS team and to you all for the incredible costumes and donations towards the raffle. A huge well done to our fabulous children who bring so much joy to us all, particularly at this time of year. But see for yourself below—pictures speak a 1000 words!

THANK YOU FOR AN AMAZING CHRISTMAS DINNER! These two talented chefs cooked the most amazing lunch for nearly 140 children and what a feast it was. The children also enjoyed the wonderful home made Christmas crackers filled with chocolate Santas and funny jokes to share with their friends. A big thank you to our amazing FOPS team for making our Christmas dinner day that extra special for the children.

THE FIGHT FOR HOME STARTS HERE

Swift's held a fundraising event for the charity Shelter. This follows a term's work in Pupil Voice on Global Goal 1; looking at poverty both globally and locally. Students were given the option of choosing from a variety of toppings including berries and cream, lemon and sugar and banana and chocolate – all kindly donated by the families of Swifts. We had a staggering 130 orders and have raised just over £400. Thank you all so much for your support.

Thank you!

Thank you!
