

Morning Lessons

English

Genre	Non-Chronological Reports
Features	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> title or heading which explains the subject introductory paragraph sub headings bullet points technical vocabulary present tense third person formal tone concluding paragraph
Reading	Holes by Louis Sachar
Spelling	words ending '-ible'
	words ending '-ibly'
	Synonyms and Antonyms

Class Book!

Maths

Unit	Language
Problem Solving	pattern puzzle problem, problem solving mental, mentally what could we try next? how did you work it out? show how you ... explain your thinking explain your method describe the pattern describe the rule investigate recognise describe draw compare sort greatest value, least value mental calculation written calculation statement justify make a statement explain your reasoning

Afternoon Lessons, Vocabulary Pyramids and Fab Friday

R.E.

Why do some people believe in God and some people not?
Tier 1	Christian, Jew, Muslim, Hinduism, 'theist', 'atheist', 'agnostic', Genesis
Tier 2	eternal, religious, non-religious, secular
Tier 3	statement, census, belief, faith, tradition, family,

Physical Education (Real P.E.)

Applying Physical

Computing

micro:bits

Tier 3	emulator, flow, algorithm,
Tier 2	controllable device, conditions, if-then-else, physical input, modify, bug fixing,
Tier 1	input, program, variable, design

Science

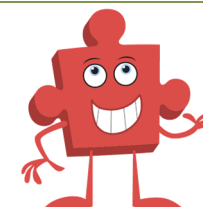

Circulatory System

Tier 3	Aorta, oxygenated, deoxygenated
Tier 2	Circulatory system, heart, blood, blood vessels, veins, arteries
Tier 1	Diet, exercise, drugs, lifestyle, lungs, nutrients, carbon dioxide,

SMSC

Changing Me

Fab Friday

Languages

PE

Drama