

Why this?

Rabbit and Bear is a modern-classic by Julian Gough about friendship and caring.

Why now?

The Year 1s learn about making friends, being friends and being safe in their Jigsaw lessons.

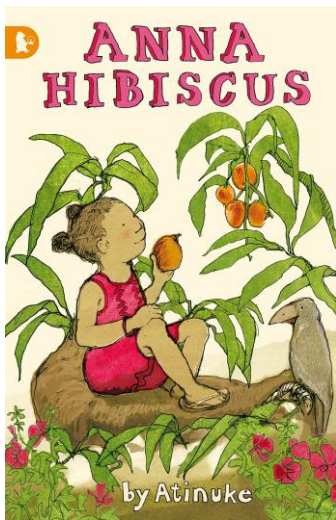

Why this?

The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark is a heart-warming short chapter book by Jill Tomlinson about an owl fighting his fear of the dark.

Why now?

The Year 1s learn a out being special, unique and inclusive in their Jigsaw lessons.

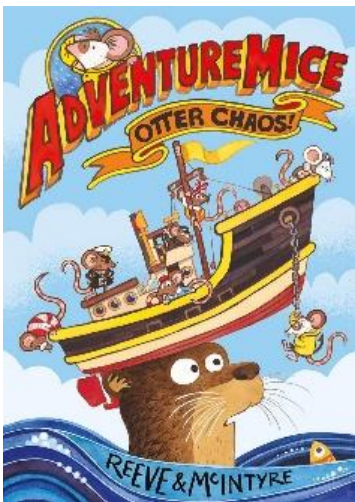

Why this?

Anna Hibiscus is a heart-warming story by Atinuke about a young girl living in Africa, featuring stories of life, culture and childhood experiences.

Why now?

The Year 1s study Africa as part of their Sensational Safari topic work.

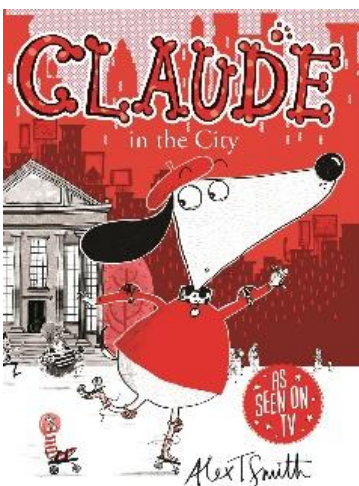

Why this?

Adventure Mice: Otter Chaos is an adventure story by Phillip Reeve and Sarah McIntyre about a small mouse realising his self-worth.

Why now?

The Year 1s learn about achieving together and overcoming obstacle in the Jigsaw lessons.

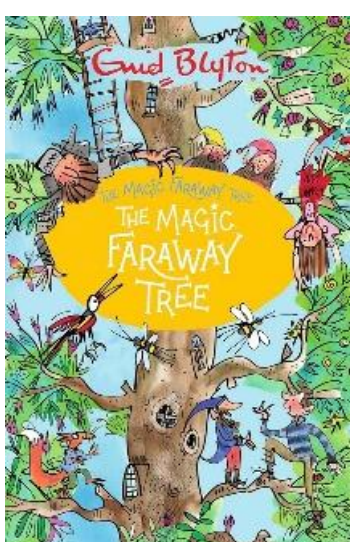

Why this?

Claude in the City is an adventure story by Alex T. Smith about a dog who lives in a big city and becomes a local hero!

Why now?

The Year 1s learn about feeling proud, overcoming obstacles and special relationships.

Why this?

The Magic Faraway Tree is a classic adventure by Enid Blyton about siblings who discover an enchanted wood, full of adventures!

Why now?

The Year 1s learn about the use of imagination and creativity in their Skills Builder sessions.