

This week's focus was on RESILIENCE

On Wednesday, we had our annual visit from the RNLI to remind us of how to stay safe when we're visiting our beautiful Cornish beaches this summer. We learnt about how to stay safe in the sun, what the different flags mean and what to do if we find ourselves in trouble at the beach. Some willing participants even got to dress up in life-guard uniform! Please visit the RNLI website to find out more: rnli.org/safety/beach-safety

RAK Nominations: Nicola Ward would like to give a RAK nomination to Tom Woodrow. At the choccy bingo night Tom gave James Ward (child in Reception class) his only Easter egg that he had won because James didn't win one. A lovely thing to do! Thank you for your kindness Tom!

Mrs Pallôt has nominated Theo Michell for helping another child hold an instrument when he could see they were struggling to hold it on their own. Thank you for your kindness Theo.

Could you eat another Easter Egg?!

Our Easter Eggs have arrived...better late than never. So we really have them to give away at Messy Church this time. MESSY CHURCH is an all-age family gathering with craft, games, songs, story and food, not like conventional church; that is partly why it's called "Messy". There is plenty of space for the energetic to run around, and we do not expect anyone to sit quietly when they are not in the mood.

The next gathering will be on SATURDAY 11th May between 9.30 and 11.00 at All Saints Church, Killigrew Street, Falmouth. We will start at 9.30 with breakfast and then there will be games and activities, followed by a story and songs. Everyone is welcome and we would be delighted to see you. All children must be accompanied by an adult please.

Messy Church is free, but donations are very welcome.

For more information see www.messychurch.org.uk or find us on Facebook.com/Falmouth Messy Church .
